The first system of music is written in 12/8 time with a key signature of two flats. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of quarter notes and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note bass line and a treble line with chords and moving lines.

Travel was Pliny Miles' vice and he rarely slept in the same bed twice.
He also worked to bring postal bliss,
and wrote a book about mnemonics--whatever that is!
